

A Summary of All My Works

By Karl Marx (1871 – 1878)

Table of Contents

- I. Marxism and how this is about Marxism
- II. Marx and Soviet works, in Progress Publishers describing the Marxist as a nature loving person.
- III. Marxism and the Practice of the Party in Gotha
- IV. Marxism in this Account as Partial Still
- V. Marxism as in fact Clear Cut Dogmatic Behaviour
- VI. Marxism then as Soviet Leninism.

I. Paris Commune, Class Struggles in France, England and Germany and First International as History and Lived Experience – How to be about the Process of the Militant as a Historian

I mean be a militant and cover this process of living history and be interested in the more abstract character of social affairs.

II. Anthropological Stance of the Margins and Sub-Margins

Then articulate this to say Japanese views on society and social production process and be interested in also tribal history. I mean it is fundamental to be natural.

III. Naturalism, Philosophy of Nature, Ecology

I mean we are free natural people, with free minds and free thoughts. Anarchism as well.

IV. Anarchism and Proudhonists – How they are to be admired but also criticized

I mean anarchism is true, but also Marxism is truer but they can be seen together.

V. Grundrisse and Capital – How the Militant then joins the Jewish Question

I mean then German words, like uproot and uproot entirely. I also mean be an uprising and be a militant who sits and reads the newspaper daily.

VI. Mind as Concrete and Outside the Mind as Materialism

Be concrete and in the mind a bit, but be a free mind, as free as youth.
I mean though be a aspiration to totality, cover the totality.

VII. Observations on People and Experiences of Boulevards – Qualities not Quantities finally – Crosses all over the Boulevard

I will live forever, I think of quality is true, truer than quantities, though quantities Lincoln respects as accounts.

Travel New York sometime, and see black people with white people in liberal air.
